I sat on the train, rocking back and forth much like I did half a year ago last spring.

It was October. I was entering my second year of high school.

Chapter 40 In the Sky of Falling Stars

The stars I was never able to see in Tokyo had become visible again just like the first time I arrived here.

And that there's ...

Cassio-peia...

Per-seus...

Huh?

I can't remember it's name...

Uh...

Um...

Good to see you back, Kotaro!

PI PI PI PI

Obasan!

Wow...

A high school teacher...

He was still in his prime...

What was he?

The funeral must have tired you out...

How old was your uncle when he passed away?

48 I think...

He was kind...

Very, very kind...

What was he like?

NEOS

How was he related to you?

He was one of my father's cousins...

It must have been hard on a lot of people to lose him...

Being that kind...

I was totally blind-sided...

I didn't see it coming...

SIGN: YAMANOTE FUNERAL HALL

山の手斎場

He could have...

done so much more with his life.

Well

The work probably wouldn't have fit well with his personality anyway...

A large bank would have hired him, but he became infatuated with "the stars" and decided he would rather be a teacher...

Didn't he end up becoming an Earth Science teacher at a public school?

Earth Science!?

That garbage wouldn't even make it on an entrance exam!

Next year, you're going to be looking for work. I want you to think about your future when you choose your employment.

Heh

I'm actually smart enough to go for the real work!

Kotaro-kun...

Oh, Obasan?

BOOK: THE GREAT DICTIONARY OF SPACE

SPACE

What's that?

It was his...

Most beloved book...

He always used to say...

that he wanted to give this to you once you became old enough to appreciate it.

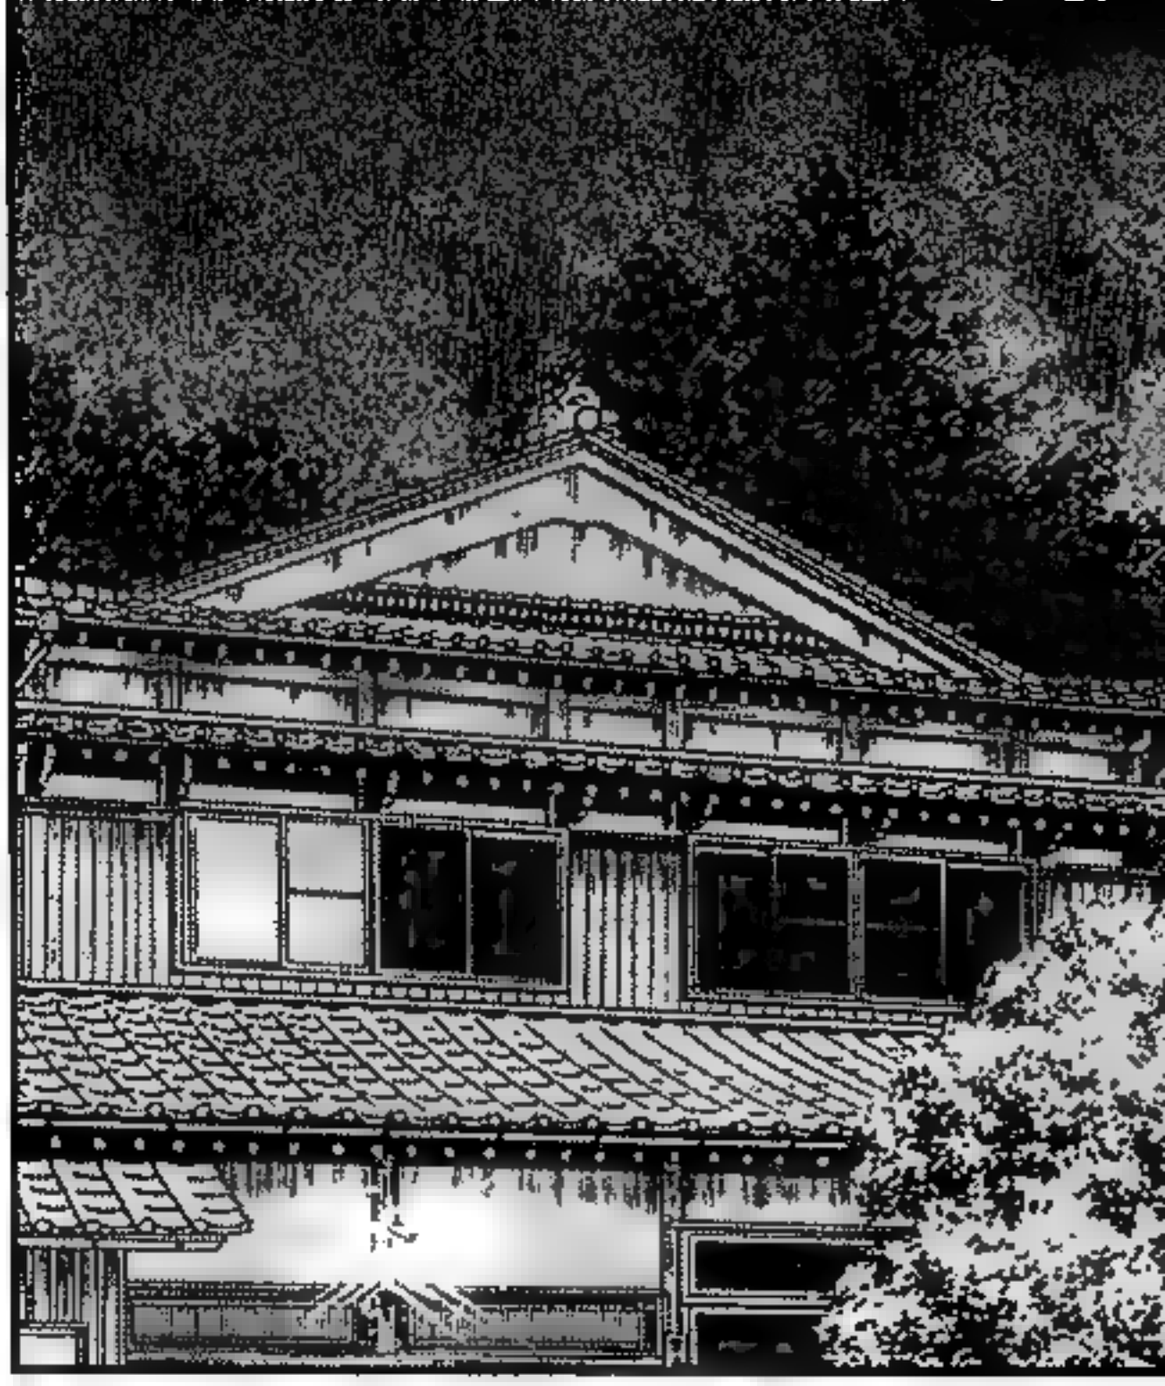
We didn't have any children of our own, so he probably thought of you as a son...

He said that you reminded him of himself when he was young...

I would like you to take it.

Thats' why...

if you don't mind...



Oh, is this where you were hiding, Kotaro-kun?

What're you doing?

Oh?

I thought you came out to the countryside to have some fun since your cram school is on vacation for the summer?

Studying for cram school...

Mom said that I'd be hopeless if I didn't study.

But I only got an 80 on the kanji test.

That's why I have to...

He got a 100 on his last test.

My cousin Jun is pretty smart.

Huh?

But Ojisan! I thought you were a teacher!

I was never very good with kanji, either...

Oh kanji!

I may be a teacher, but that doesn't mean I don't have my own weaknesses.

Huh

A new astronomy book!?

You remember the names of the stars, don't you?

Also, Kotaro, you're not as hopeless as you think.

There's the eagle star, Altair

Here is Gemini

Pollux and Castor ...

Um

This's Taurus.

All right from the top of your head!

That's amazing, Kotaro...

Hrrmmmm

In fact

It might only come in useful if you traveled to space...

Yeah, it may not be popular with the test-takers...

It won't do anything to get me into a good school...

But MOM told me...

knowing the names of the stars isn't going to do ME any good.

Ojisan, are we gonna travel to space!?

Space!?

Yeah!

Space travel!

SPACE

Really!?

It might even happen sometime once you've grown up.

Maybe someday.

So I studied and studied all about the stars...

I remember I wanted to become an astronaut, too, a long time ago.

That reminds me...

14

But...

The closest I ever got in the end was teaching astronomy...

I'll just take you with Me!

Don't worry Ojisan!

When I blast off...

I look forward to it, Kotaro!

Really?

PATTER

I don't know when I forgot that promise I made to you.

I was hopeless in Tokyo. So I came here. But I'm still the same person...

How I was...

back then...

Ojisan...

I remembered, Ojisan...

Again?

You're a noodle freak.

I dunno. Udon maybe?

What're you having for lunch?

Well, they're good...

SFX: THUD

I was rushing and didn't see you.

I'm... I'm so sorry...

Ouch

Sorry

Please pardon me.

Who... who was that?

Well

Please excuse me.

I'm in a rush.

The Earth Science teacher, Ozawa.

Though

When he isn't teaching class, he spends most of his time in the science prep room.

it isn't a surprise you haven't seen him.

Oh?

He left a book...

You saved me some time!

I was looking all over for this!

You... left something behind today...

Oooh.

Thank you so much!

I have... a copy of it, too.

Is that right?

You have an interest in the sky, too!?

Oh

Come here and have a seat!

His eyes watered as he told how Pluto lost its classification as a planet...

He stood, waving his hands in the air from time to time, as he explained about comets...

Ozawa-sensei started giving various facts about the planets and stars...

I leaned forward slightly...

I just watched silently as Ozawa-sensei continued heatedly talking...

while having...

a feeling of nostalgia swell in my heart.

No it's fine. It was really interesting.

I'm Sorry. I just got so caught up in what I was talking about...

For-give me

Ah How did it get this late!?

Alright, I will.

You can come back whenever you want.

Really?

SFX: SCREECH

Earth Science ...

I should have chosen that as one of my classes ...

I can probably only do it once I'M in one of those schools in Tokyo...

When I was in the higher grades of elementary school, all I focused on was studying for the middle school entrance exam...

Of course, "the stars" were mostly unrelated to taking that test...

Fast forward to high school... and now I'm studying for the college entrance exam this time...

However

I became unable to keep up...

and so I came to this town...

Woh

Oh

SFX: SCREECH

I-I'M SO SORRY!

By the way, Tsutsumi-kun...

Did you run by Nagisa on your way back, tonight?

Well uh...

but she ran off when she saw me. Looked like she had seen a ghost...
